"When Can I Go to Confession ?"

A question which is often asked the pastor of St James is "Fr. Joe, I can not make it to Confession on Saturday afternoons. Is there some other way to go to Confession, and follow the Catholic Church's teaching on this Sacrament of Penance ?

Answer: "YES". One does not need to stand in line on a Saturday at 4 p.m. in order to receive the Sacrament of Penance. Fr. Joe will be willing to hear any one's Confession just about any normal time of the day at the rectory office. If you are uncomfortable of the priest seeing who your, go thru a third party and ask if you can meet the priest at the Church at a reasonable time of the day in the Confessional (Reconciliation Room). It is ALWAYS the penitent's choice to go "face to face" or anonymous behind a screen. Fr. Joe has heard Confessions in cemeteries, on hiking trails, in flower gardens, on sick beds in homes, and before marriages and funerals (very important and encouraged!!!!). The sacrament's usual rite takes place in a confessional but the sacrament can take place anywhere.

Please call the rectory and ask Fr Joe to make an appointment to go to Confession, if Saturday at 4 pm is not possible for you. The nature of a Saturday in 2010 is a very different social experience than a Saturday afternoon was in the 1960's.

Anointing Of The Sick

Please keep the parish office informed of anyone who is to undergo serious surgery homebound, hospitalized, or in a nursing care facility so that our parish community might minister to them. We would be glad to arrange for Holy Communion to be brought to the those who are not able to celebrate the Eucharist here at St. James Church on Sundays with our parish family. Our pastor was ordained for the purpose of , and is more than happy to celebrate the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick with those who are suffering from serious illness. This anointing can also be arranged for after the conclusion of the weekday or weekend Masses, in the church. Please call the rectory office for more information.

Please Help Keep Prayer List Current

We ask that all parishioners help to keep blue sheet, prayer list current by adding or removing names. Please let us know who to add or remove by using the list in the back of the church or calling the Rectory at 438-4686. Thank you!
